DEDICATION

We the Senior Class of 1952, with sincere appreciation for her loyal service throughout these past eight years, dedicate this annual to our English teacher and Librarian, Miss L. Pauline Cogle.

She has a B. S. Degree from the Collège of William and Mary, and has done summer work at Alabama College, Mary Washington, Longwood, and the College of William and Mary.

As English teacher, Miss Cogle has helped us to increase our knowledge of grammar and literature. It is with deep gratitude that we make this dedication.

D. H. S. OUR ALMA MATER

Till the seas become abated
and the stars forget to shine,
Till the clouds obscure the sunlight,
and 'tis darkness all the time,
Till the raindrops cease their falling,
and the wind forgets to blow,
Till this gay old world stops whirling,
D. H. S. our love shall know.

Hail to all her sturdy heroes,
heroes of the court and field,
Ones who know no end of victory,
heroes who would scorn to yield;
With a vim and zeal unequaled
they will fight unto the end,
Each one knowing 'tis his duty,
his school's honor to defend.

When in years to come we're severed,
from that home we love so well,
In our hearts the golden memories
of our youth will ever dwell;
So when e'er we see that banner,
and we watch its folds unfurl,
We will cheer for Alma Mater
D. H. S. a priceless pearl.

Who's Who

Here is the Senior class of '52
One by one I'll show them to you.

First there is Jesse, the clown of the class
He can be quite serious about a cute freshman lass.

Next there is Eddie who's handsome, dark, and tall
And when it comes to girls he's really on the ball.

Willie is the boy with an abundance of wit
He gives a certain bus driver quite a fit.

Marie is tall, dark, and pretty, too
To her friends she is always true.

Mary Frances is our candy eating friend
But when it comes to sports, she's really on the beam.

Dorothy is always jolly and gay
A stenographer she hopes to become some day.

Paul is our dark haired Romeo
All of the girls like to think he's their beau.

Everett has a mischievous gleam in his eye
I'm afraid that little gleam shall never die.

In executive ability George Vesely has no loss
And for some secretary, he'll make a good boss.

With fingers that really fly o'er the keys
Doris plays a tune as pretty as you please.

Shirley has a merry heart and dancing feet
And in stature she is quite petite.

June's hair is her crowning glory
The boy who wins her will never be sorry.

Linwood is handy with a hammer and saw
He also enters into politics and law.

Some people say that Billy is slow
But in baseball he's our Dimaggio.

George Hanzlik has a heart of pure gold
He is a future farmer so I'm told.

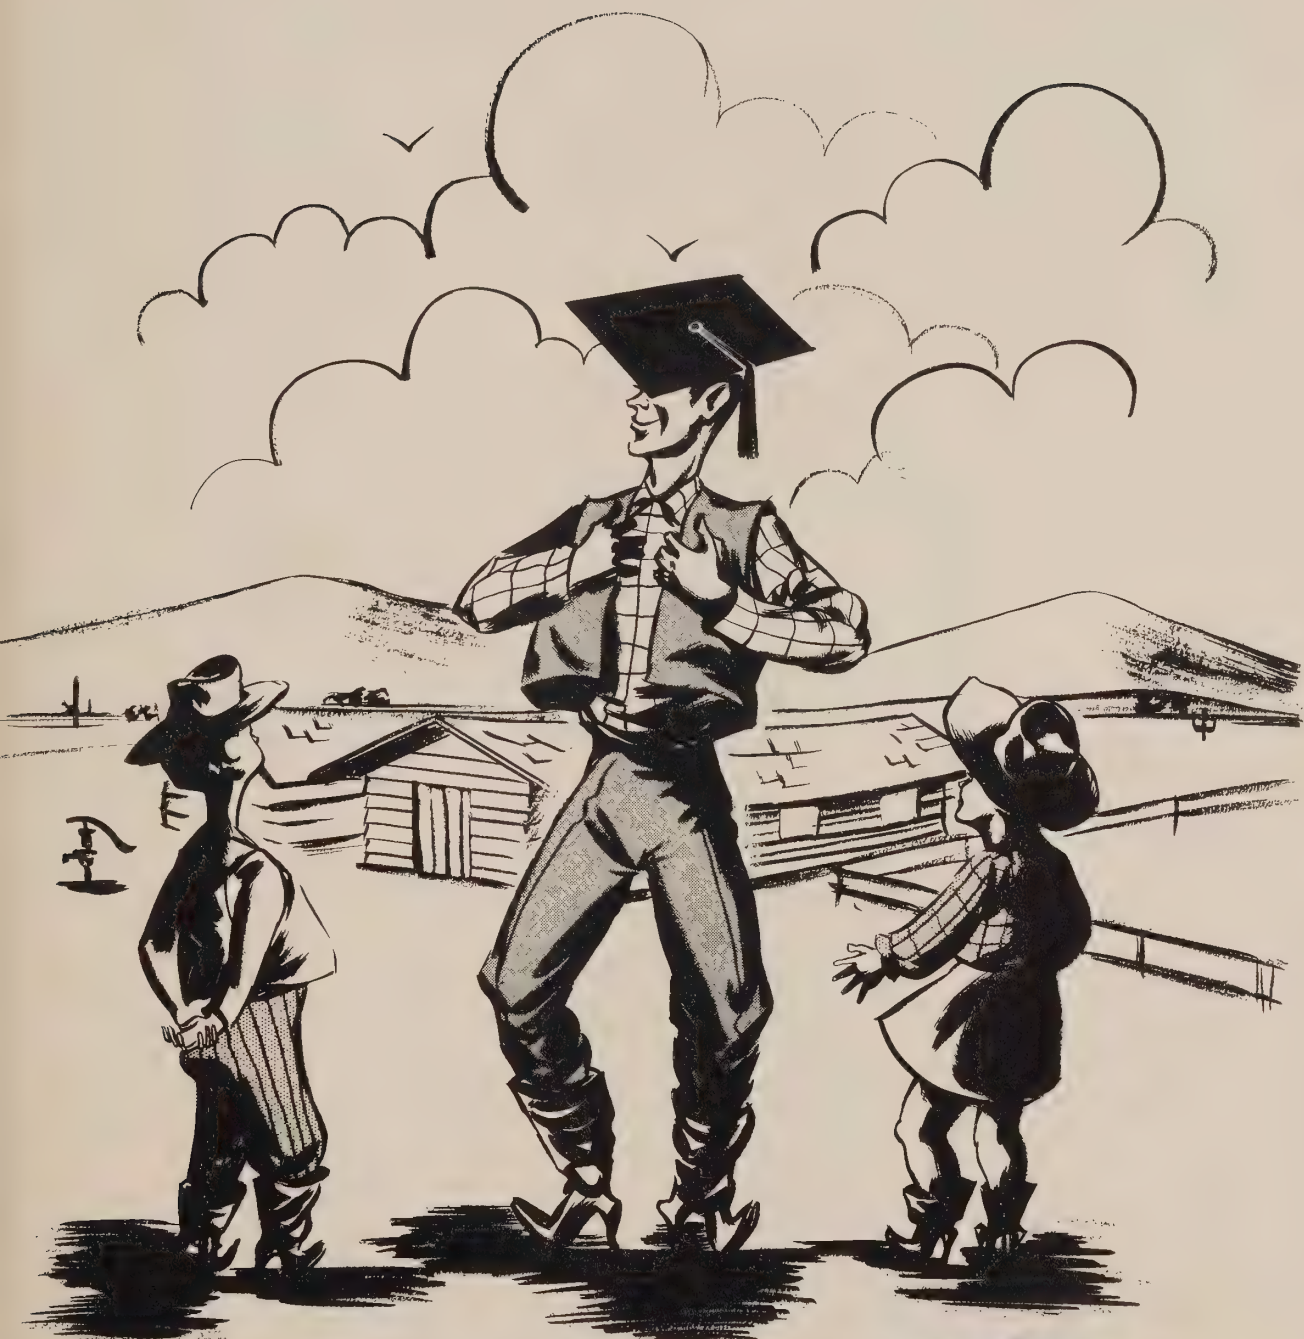

Peggy's personality is hard to beat
And a kinder person you'll hardly meet.

Mary Sue is the girl with a natural curl
The one who marries her certainly has a pearl.

There is one person I'd like you to meet
In sweetness and patience she can't be beat
Her kindness was appreciated whether large or small
The memory of Mrs. Sluka shall remain with all.

The composer of these verses will never be a great poet
And after reading this poem you'll certainly know it.

Senior Class History

When September 7, 1948 arrived, we were twenty spry freshmen entering Room 10. Being quite proud of entering high school, we were ready to get under way in our studies under the guidance of Miss Irma Parker, our home room teacher. We were happy to welcome J. P. Tiller, a new classmate, into our class. After taming down a little and gaining some dignity we finally settled down to some honest work. We elected the following as our class officers: President, Benny Soltes; Vice-President, Willie Horne; Secretary, Doris Kvasnicka; Treasurer, Marie Kvasnicka; Historian, Willie Horne; S. C. A. Representative, Dorothy Oleyar; and Reporter, Mary Sue Elder. We chose blue and gold as our class colors and the golden rod as our flower. Our motto was, "If at First You Don't Succeed, Try, Try, Again." The main stepping stone having been laid, we greeted June with a sigh.

We began our Sophomore year on September 12, 1949. As we confidently marched into our home room, Miss Pauline Cogle, our home room teacher, was the first to greet us. We elected the following as our class officers: President, Willie Horne; Vice-President, James Beck; Secretary, Bill Scott; Treasurer, Edward Soucek; S. C. A. Representative, Harry Pelter; Reporter, J. P. Tiller; Historian, George Vesely. We chose maroon and gold as our class colors and the lily as our flower. The motto remained the same as was chosen in the previous year. We were also happy to greet Linwood Grant as a new member of our class.

In the fall of 1950, we began our third adventure with Mr. Frank E. Teass as Junior Class Sponsor. We lost James Beck and J. P. Tiller, but gained Ernest Moore. We earnestly got under way in our studies. This year our class officers were: President, Dorothy Oleyar; Vice-President, Doris Kvasnicka; Secretary, Jean Wyborne; Treasurer, Marie Kvasnicka; S. C. A. Representative, Shirley Zuskin; Reporter, Mary Sue Elder. We will always admire our class rings that arrived in March. All work and no play makes us dull, and because of the kindness of the Seniors, we decided to have a Junior-Senior Banquet, which with much help from Miss Jennie Tomko, turned out to be a success. Then June came which all the Juniors heartily welcomed by having a picnic at Red Water Lake. Many of the Junior boys and girls were on the baseball and the basketball teams and both look forward to their Senior year with high hope of more victories.

Finally in September 1951, nineteen Seniors entered their home room proud to be recognized as dignified and hard working Seniors. We learned that Bill Scott had left us. Mrs. Willie M. Sluka was our Senior Class Sponsor. We lost no time in buckling down to do our share of the job of composing our class annual and participating in other activities. We elected the following as class officers: President, Doris Kvasnicka; Vice-President, Marie Kvasnicka; Secretary, Paul Simmons; Treasurer, George Vesely; S. C. A. Representative, George Hanzlik. The boys basketball team this year came very near winning the championship. Those Senior boys and girls participating in baseball and basketball wish the future teams the very best of luck. As this, our annual, goes to press, we, the Seniors of Disputanta High School are anxiously awaiting the day of our graduation. Our work and play together here have been most pleasant and profitable. We are joyfully looking forward to the day of our graduation, after which we shall all meet the future with greater confidence.

Foretelling The Future of The Class of '52

While listening to the radio in my lab one day in 1962; George Vesely, news commentator for C. B. S., gave a brief summary of the World news and sports highlights. General Linwood Grant, who is in charge of the occupational forces overseas, has returned to give a full report to the president. Doris Kvasnicka has been appointed Secretary of Interior. She is the first woman to hold this position. The oil typhoon, Edward Soucek, has just gained control of the New York Stock Exchange. The leading fashion designer of the World, Mary Frances Brockwell leaves for her Paris office tomorrow. Paul Simmons, owner of the Simmons chain stores, has decided on the location of his new store. It will be constructed by Chicago's famous building contractor, Jesse Elder. Metropolitan's new opera singer, June Taylor, will go to Paris soon for a three-months engagement.

The latest in sports is that the New York Yankees third baseman, Billy Hanzlik, has signed his contract for a new season.

On the way home from the lab that afternoon, I stopped at a newsstand to get the evening paper. While I was waiting for my change, I noticed an article that Marie Kvasnicka had won the Nobel prize for the best novel of the year. This was her twenty-first prize winning novel.

As I was driving home, I couldn't help but think of my other classmates and wonder what had happened to them. Upon arriving home, I stretched out in my easy chair to finish reading the paper. You can imagine my surprise when I recognized a picture of Peggy Nunnally. She had just accepted the job as a stewardess on the liner "The United States." As I glanced over the page, I noticed an article written by Benny Soltes who is now the star reporter of the "Daily Globe." The article which he wrote contained information on the new cancer drug which Willie Horne, an outstanding chemist had perfected. Glancing further down the page, I saw that George Hanzlik, the largest beef farmer in Kansas, had donated 2,000 head of cattle to our European Aid Program.

On the society page, I learned that Dorothy Oleyar will marry a famous millionaire, and go to Honolulu on her honeymoon. Shirley Zuskin and Mary Sue Elder, ballet dancing teachers, were announcing the opening of a new dancing school in Chicago next month.

Newspapers aren't complete without the funnies, so I turned to the comic page and read my favorites, all of which were drawn by the outstanding cartoonist, Jean Wyborney. I had read previously that she had contracts with the "Look" and "Life" magazines.

After reading my paper, I turned the lights off and started to bed, thinking of how my newest invention would benefit mankind.

Everett Moore

Willie: "The only difference between you and a mule is that a mule wears a collar."

Jesse: "But I wear a collar, too."

Willie: "Then I was mistaken; there is no difference."

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1952, knowing that our days at Disputanta High School are numbered, do hereby draw up, ordain, and establish this our last will and testament. Before this sad day arrives, we want to legally dispose of all former statements made during our years of ignorance.

ARTICLE I

To the Faculty, we will:

1. To Mr. Walton, a telephone extension so he can hear it ring while he is teaching a class.
2. To Mr. Beazley, a group of students who can follow instructions.
3. To Mrs. Rice, a class of dignified girls so she won't have to keep telling them to be quiet.
4. To Mrs. Sluka, an expense-free taxi to carry her home after school so she won't have to rush in order to catch the bus.
5. To Mr. Teass, a basketball team that will win the District Championship.
6. To Miss Cogle, a new Chevrolet to replace the old one she now has.
7. To Mrs. Harvey, another period besides fourth, in which to teach shorthand so her students won't have to miss class so much.
8. To Mrs. Fuller, a basketball team that can win more than one game.
9. To Mrs. Barlow, a larger room so she can re-arrange the desks.
10. To Miss Simmons, a sound-proof room so the noise from the library won't bother her classes.
11. To Miss Tomko, an extra room in which to keep her painting utensils.
12. To Miss Moss, some more storybooks for her third-grade pupils to read.
13. To Mrs. Dabek, a room upstairs with the other grade pupils.
14. To Miss Nicholson, a nurse to help her take care of her sick pupils.

ARTICLE II

To the Juniors, we will:

1. An etiquette book so they can polish up in their manners before they become Seniors.
2. Our home room and our teacher.

To the Sophomores, we will:

1. Some dignity so they can one day be referred to as "dignified" Seniors
2. The right to laugh and talk in class without being sent out of the room.

To the Freshmen, we will:

1. An extra period in which they could go to the library.
2. A bigger room and enough desks to accommodate the thirty-three pupils in the class.

Last Will and Testament

In a gay and carefree mood, a man telephoned a friend at two o'clock in the morning. "I do hope I haven't disturbed you," he said cheerily. "Oh, no," the friend replied, "that's quite all right. I had to get up to answer the telephone anyway."

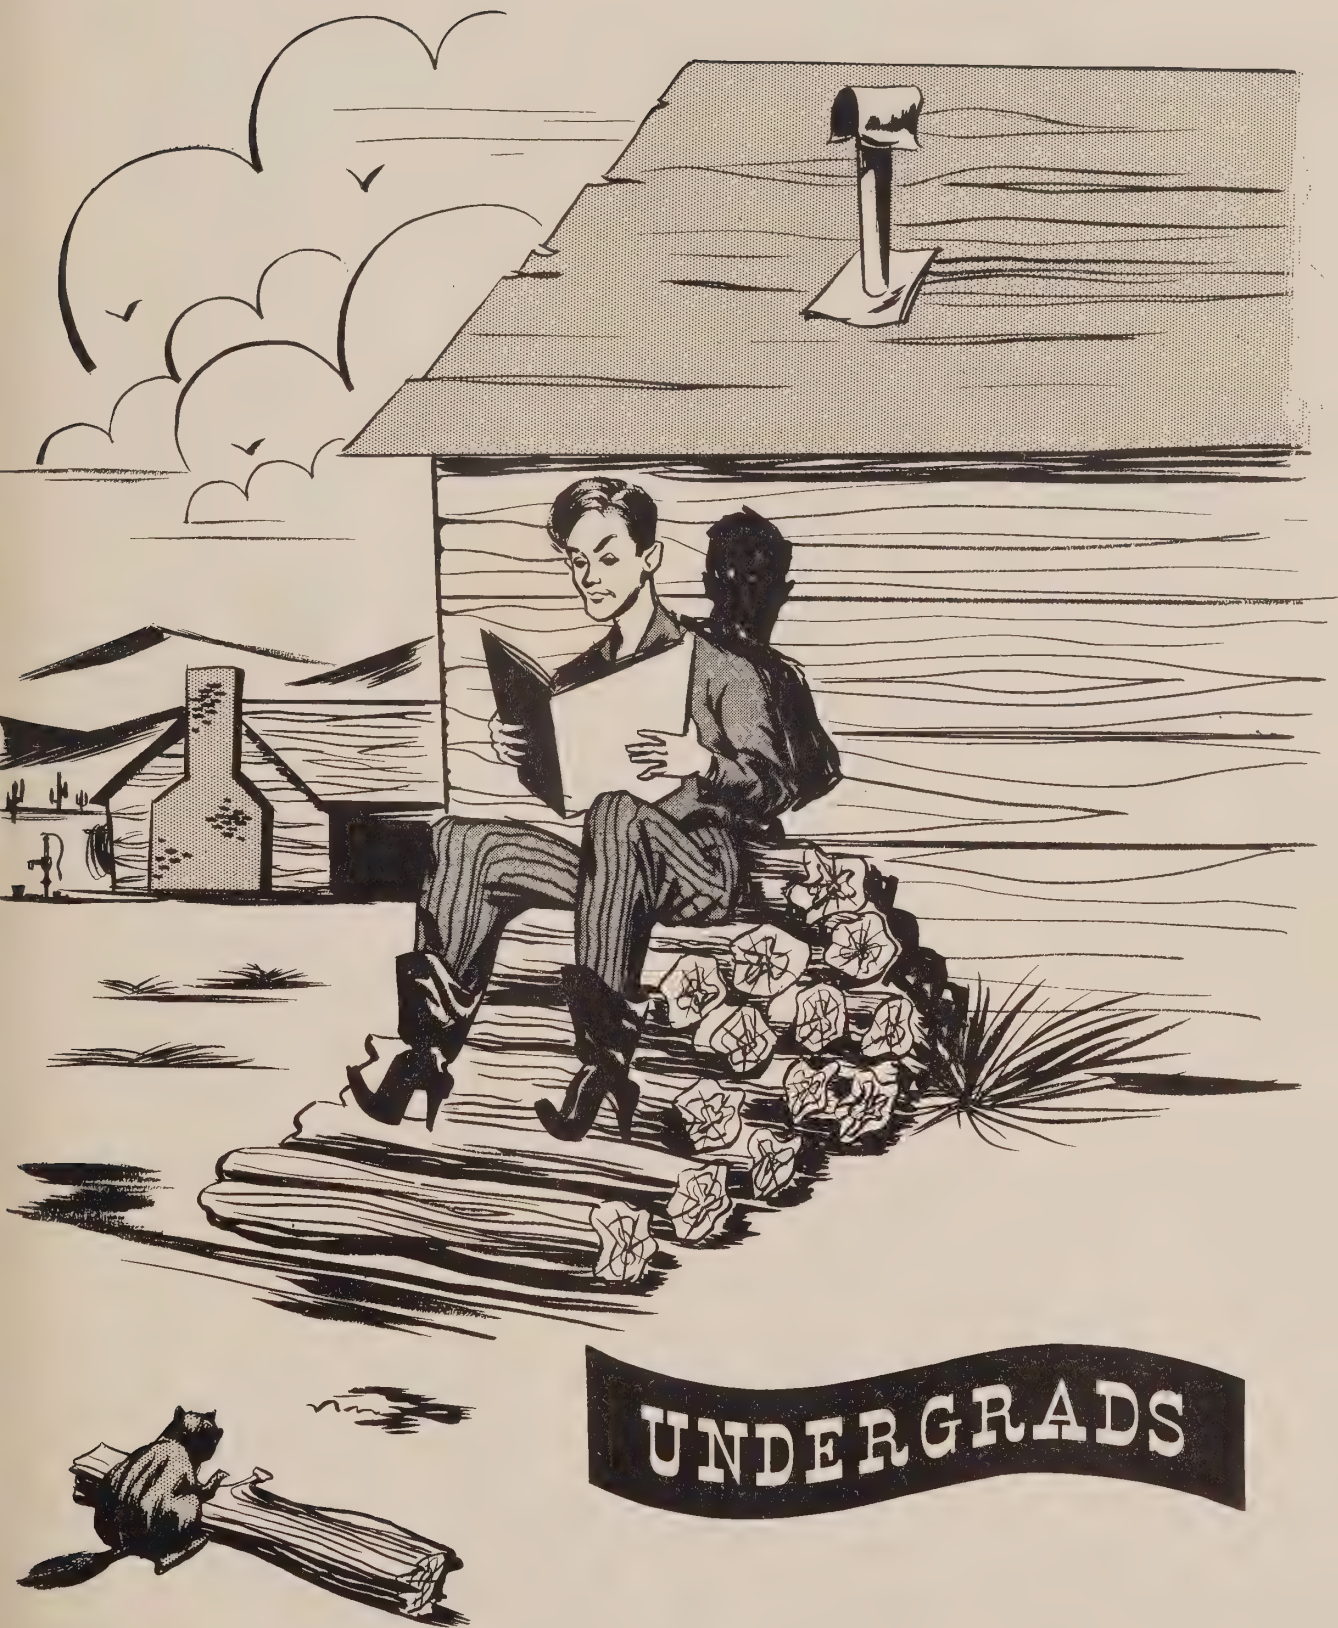

A friend of ours went in to see his boss and asked him for the day off to celebrate his silver wedding anniversary.

The boss, after thinking it over for quite awhile said, "Okay, but I hope I'm not going to have to put up with this every twenty-five years."

Junior Class History

One bright sunny day on September 8, 1949, nineteen fun loving boys and girls were welcomed in high school by the Freshman home room teacher, Miss Nancy Ellis. After a few days of fun and play we settled down and elected our class officers. They were: President, Barbara Rusnak; Vice-President, Dorothy Johnson; Secretary, Shirley Sylvester; Treasurer, Jessie Waymack; S. C. A. Representative, Joann Jandl. We chose as our class motto, "Not For Oneself, But For Others." We picked Blue and Gold as our class colors and the Tulip for our class flower.

On September 11, 1950, we began our Sophomore year with Miss Pauline Cogle, as sponsor. Donald Livesay, a new student, joined our class, we lost Bobby Williams. This year our class officers were: President, Ben Gay; Vice-President, Arthur Elder; Secretary, Joann Jandl; Historian, Shirley Sylvester. We kept the same motto and colors as of last year, but we decided to have the Yellow rose as our flower. We donated money to several worthy causes and gave several successful parties.

Once again our class was delighted to be together to tackle the third year under the leadership of Mr. Frank Teass. After a few days of pretended work by such energetic pupils, the following class officers were elected: President, Donald Livesay; Vice-President, Dorothy Johnson; Secretary, Dorothy Kvasnicka; Historian, Shirley Sylvester. Our class motto and flower remained the same as the Sophomore class.

Many boys and girls of the Junior class have gone out for basketball, baseball, and softball. This year we lost George Sebera and Barbara Rusnak. We now have a total of seventeen pupils.

As yet we have not received our class rings. "Won't that day ever come?"

Well, it won't be long now, as June is approaching and we must say farewell to the Junior class. We are looking forward to the day when we may represent the "Senior Class of Disputanta High School."

--Shirley Sylvester

Miss Cogle: (Giving a Lecture) "Yes, women have suffered in a thousand ways."
(She then paused for effect.)

Eddie: "I can think of one way in which they have not suffered and never will."

Miss Cogle: (Demanding) "What way is that?"

Eddie: "They have never suffered in silence."

The S. C. A. of Disputanta High School started its year by setting up goals for the coming year. The organization is accomplishing these goals, as we have purchased song books, contributed to the playground improvement, started the sale of defense stamps and bonds, sponsored a magazine campaign, and are planning to send delegates to the State Convention.

A division of the Extension Service, the 4-H Clubs represents development of the head, heart, hands, and health. Educating the boys in agricultural studies and increasing the knowledge of the girls in the field of homemaking are the two main objectives of this nation-wide rural youth organization.
